

TAKE THE FIRST STEP IN CREATING A PATHWAY TO A NEW CAREER!

FREE High School Equivalency (HSE) and English (ELA) Classes

Explore career opportunities and professions while working on your HSE or English.

Learn about course content and prerequisites for job training.

Classes provide accelerated learning with integrated industry curriculum.

Discover salaries and local hiring demand then get on a pathway to your new career.

Classes start in January.

Free classes include:

- Intro to electrical
- Intro to plumbing
- Intro to HVAC
- Intro to Safety
- Intro to Facilities Maintenance Operations
- Intro Manufacturing Operations and many more
- OSHA 10 for Construction
- CPR / 1st Aid Certificate
- National Career Readiness Certificate
- Field trips
- Guest speakers
- Textbooks

Maintenance and Manufacturing Career Pathway Information Session

Date and Time: Jan. 10th, 2018 at 6 p.m.

Location: Sahara West Center • 2409 Las Verdes Street • Las Vegas, NV 89102

Advanced ELA for Maintenance and Manufacturing Class

Learn English while exploring vocabulary and career exploration related to maintenance and manufacturing industries.

HSE 100 Writing for Maintenance and Manufacturing

Students will develop basic reading and writing skills and knowledge needed for transitioning into the Maintenance and Manufacturing Bridge class while preparing for the HSE test.

HSE Maintenance and Manufacturing Bridge Class

This course prepares students for the HSE Math exam while exploring Maintenance & Manufacturing Careers.
Certifications provided at no cost.

For more information, contact Glenn Mungcal – Advisor for Adult Literacy and Language Program

glenn.mungcal@csn.edu • 702-651-7975 • Sign-up at <https://csn.augusoft.net/>